International Speedway Corporation Amends Its $300 Million Credit Facility

ANOTHER NASCAR COMPANY IN TROUBLE?

DAYTONA BEACH, FI, 17.11.2012, 14:29 Time

USPA NEWS - International Speedway Corporation (NASDAQ Global Select Market: ISCA; OTC Bulletin Board: ISCB) ("ISC") announced that it has amended and restated its $300 million revolving credit facility (the "Facility") provided by multiple lenders.

The amendment provides better terms and extends the final maturity of the facility from November 2015 to November 2017. The Facility can continue to be utilized for general corporate purposes, including external growth opportunities. The improved terms on the Facility include an amended pricing grid ranging from LIBOR + 1.00% to LIBOR + 1.625%, depending on the better of ISC's debt rating as determined by Standard & Poor's or the Company's leverage ratio. Comparable pricing on ISC's previous credit facility ranged from LIBOR + 1.50% to LIBOR + 2.25%. In addition, the amendment reduces certain other fees.

Daniel W. Houser, ISC Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, said, "We appreciate the continuing support of our lending group, which is an endorsement of the Company's strength. Maintaining a solid financial position, we are able to take advantage of the favorable market conditions as they arise. The improved terms of the Facility will provide ISC lower borrowing costs and increased financial flexibility. We remain encouraged with the fundamentals of our industry and will continue to invest in our business as we execute our growth strategy."
